Will Our Customers be Pleased?

That is the question that decides all arguments in our store. When we buy and when we sell, when we select qualities and make prices, that is the question we ask ourselves. The pleasing of our customers is the first object to be attained. If anything does not please you, let us know and we will make it right.

What They Say About Harris.

First, I want to say I am laying this space in The Sentinel-Journal for the purpose of calling attention to my goods and sometimes I shall quote some prices. When I quote prices I always have the goods and if you can do better it is your duty to do so.

Second, Some one might say I cannot sell black pepper at 10c. a pound, but that is just what I am doing and it is clean and pure. It may be said that this is until I get ready to quit it. You know it sells at 20c. to 30c. everywhere. Figure on what you save. I don't ask for less than 1 pound at this price.

Third, They may say I can't sell a fine sun-cured tobacco at 5c. a plug, but that is just what I am doing and it is worth 10¢ of anybody's money.

Fourth, Others may say there is water in the oil that I sell at 15c. but if there is I want to say I didn't put it there; I buy from the same tank others do.

Fifth, Some others may say sugar has gone up. Well, it has, but by close clipping I will give you 17lbs for $1.00.

I am doing my best to merit your trade and expect to get a part of it if goods and prices are an object. I want your chickens, eggs and all kinds of produce. To be continued next week.

T. D. HARRIS.
